Biography

Being a professional DJ & Singer since more than 20 years, gave me clear understanding of my style taste energy and power.

It's always about reading the room and gathering people around this celebration of music.

It's a question of balance between the vibe, this feeling and groove that will light up the room and get the audience a unique live experience.

My musical background is very diverse. Piano Jazz education, that I still use in my productions.

In my late Forties I have a strong stage experience and i'm used to handle any kind of audience.... I Mean any really)
